

Consciousness Examen trains us to live in constant awareness of God's loving presence, helps us recognize the Holy Spirit's movement in our daily lives, and guides us to imitate Christ.

This Examen Guide integrates 12 Marks that embody key dimensions of our SPC identity and apostolic calling with the Directives of the 49th General Chapter, made concrete in the Ten Commitments for Communal Actions.

When practiced faithfully, this Examen helps us live out our SPC spirituality and deepen our sense of identity as consecrated women, fostering attentiveness to God's presence, discernment in our daily choices, and concrete expressions of our charism, values, and mission in personal, communal, and apostolic life.

The Love of Christ impels us.

The M.A.R.K.S. Examen Guide

M – Mindful of God's Presence

A – Appreciate with Gratitude

R – Review and Recognize Movements

K – Kindle a Heart Open to God's Mercy

S – Surrender and Serve

Steps of the Examen

M – Mindful of God's Presence

“Be still and know that I am God.”

(Psalm 46:10)

- Quiet yourself and become aware that God is here and near.
- Feel His loving gaze upon you — gentle, welcoming, constant.
- Remember that He has been with you through every moment of your day.
- Read the assigned Scripture text and beg for the grace connected to the SPC Mark you are focusing on.

✚ Becoming mindful invites us to rest in God's nearness before we recall anything else.

A – Appreciate with Gratitude

“Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good.”
(Psalm 136:1)

- Let your heart recall today’s blessings — big or small.
 - People who showed you kindness... beauty you noticed... strength you received.
- Speak to God with a grateful heart.
 - “Thank You for being present in these moments.”

✠ Gratitude helps us see that nothing in our day was outside God’s loving care.

R – Review and Recognize God's Movements

“Were not our hearts burning within us?”
(Luke 24:32)

- Gently walk through your day with Jesus beside you.
- Read and reflect on today's assigned question, based on your chosen SPC Mark and its weekly theme.
- As you review your experiences in light of the reflection question, notice where and how God's presence, love, or invitations were revealed to you.

⚡ This is not self-judgment, but awareness — seeing how God, through His love, moved through your day.

K – Kindle a Heart Open to God's Mercy

“Abide in Me, and I in you.” (John 15:4)

- Allow the Lord to soften and open your heart where there has been hurt, resistance, or failure.
- Bring to Him any sorrow, missteps, or relationships in need of healing.
- Ask Jesus to kindle in you a humble, repentant heart, ready to begin anew in His mercy.
 - What is He gently asking you to improve, renew, or make right — within yourself or in your relationships today?

✚ Start anew by renewing our friendship with God and seeking His guidance to grow, repair, and live more fully in His love.

S – Surrender and Serve

“Here I am, Lord; I come to do Your will.”
(Psalm 40:8)

- Carry with you God’s assurance, along with the inspirations and invitations received during the examen.
- Hold in your heart the SPC Mark you are focusing on this week.
- Entrust the rest of the day — or the day to come — to God’s mercy and guidance.
- Conclude with a personal prayer of commitment to love and serve God with renewed faith, hope, and charity.

✚ The Examen ends not in introspection but in mission — to live as one marked by God’s love.

TEN COMMITMENTS FOR COMMUNAL ACTIONS

49TH General Chapter/Council of Province 2025

1. We commit to center our life fully in Christ by intensifying our personal and communal prayer, faithfully safeguarding sacred times of prayer and rest, and ensuring that our hearts remain attentive, recollected, and available to God.

(PRAYER LIFE)

*2. We commit to live Christ's way--chaste, poor and obedient—by intentionally embracing simplicity, exercising prudence in our choices of personal items, brands, and places of recreation, and accountability for initiatives and decisions. Each month, we will include a Simplicity Check in our examen or community spiritual conversations, conduct a semestral community sorting and sharing of unused items with those most in need. (LIFE OF CONSECRATION)

*3. We commit to nurture fraternal communion, by setting aside time for regular simple recreation, relaxation, and friendship-building activities that strengthen bonds, cultivate joy, and deepen our sense of belonging to one another, thus making our communities our primary place of mission and a school of love. (FRATERNAL LIFE)

4. We commit to build communities where spaces of welcome and dialogue are created, by consciously using inclusive language and communication practices so that no Sister ever feels left out, unseen, or unheard. (INTERCULTURALITY)

5. We commit to live synodality and reciprocity in our communities, ensuring that every voice is heard in matters that affect our life and mission through consultative and participatory decision-making, valuing each Sister's gifts, and sharing responsibilities fairly. (CO-RESPONSIBILITY)

6. We commit to journey together in mission by collaborating with our lay partners, local Church, and the wider Church community in the areas of justice, peace, and ecological concerns, practicing transparency and accountability as we walk together in service. (SYNODALITY)

7. As a community, we commit to pursue holistic formation for all our Sisters that includes mentoring and succession planning, transition program for aging and ailing Sisters, responsible use of new technologies and artificial intelligence, sustainable environment stewardship (Laudato Si) so that our life and mission remain life-giving, relevant, and faithful to the Church and the Book of Life. (FORMATION)

8. We commit to remain faithful to our mission while responding creatively to our call to be prophetic witnesses by taking a clear Congregational stand—rooted in prayer, discernment, and sentire cum ecclesia (actively feeling, thinking, and acting with the Church) against threats to life, human trafficking, graft and corruption, injustice, abuse of power, disinformation, and all forms of ecological destruction, actively promoting life, truth, justice, peace, and the integrity of creation. (MISSIONARY ZEAL)

9. As a community, we commit to cultivate a spirituality of Visitation, by reviewing internal and external structures of our ministries through prayerful discernment so that we remain truly present to those entrusted to us, promote lay empowerment, and ensure our lifestyle reflects mercy, simplicity, justice, and the nearness of Christ. (MISSION OF PROXIMITY)

10. As a community, we commit to strengthen vocation promotion and formation for mission, staying informed on social and ecclesial issues, immersion in mission areas, practicing responsible digital formation, and offering programs that build spiritual depth, pastoral skills, Justice, Peace, and Integrity of Creation (JPIC) awareness, and ethical responsibility. (FORMATION)

Christ at the Center of my Life

Christ as the center of our life calls us to return to our first and only love—the One we promised to follow with undivided heart. Rooted in His love, we learn from Him how to love in truth and mercy. Guided by the Spirit, we seek each day to live and act asking, “What would Jesus do?”

Capitular Acts 2025, page 12

Center our life more fully in Christ so that, guided by the Holy Spirit, we may be authentic witnesses of Christ's love, asking ourselves: “What would Jesus do?” or “What would Mary do?”

Grace to beg

I beg for the grace to center my life fully in Christ by deepening my personal and communal prayer.
(Prayer Life, Commitment 1)

SPC MARK: Christ at the Center of my Life

Week 1: Deepening my Relationship with God

"Remain in me, as I remain in you." John 15:4

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	What specific moments of God's presence did I notice during the day?
Monday	What steps can I take to deepen my spiritual connection with God?
Tuesday	What helped me return to awareness of God?
Wednesday	How is Christ present in the ordinary tasks before me?
Thursday	What distractions keep me from centering on God?
Friday	How can I incorporate more of God's presence into my daily routine?
Saturday	Where did I feel closest to God today, and what was I doing at that moment?

SPC MARK: Christ at the Center of my Life

Week 2: Living the Vows

"Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things." Colossians 3:2

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Which vow was most alive in me today? Which felt most challenging?
Monday	How did poverty, chastity, and obedience shape my choices today?
Tuesday	Were there moments when my attachments, emotions, or desires pulled me away from being chaste?
Wednesday	Is my lifestyle and form of relaxation in keeping with my vow of poverty?
Thursday	What invitation to deeper surrender and obedience is the Lord calling me?
Friday	In what ways did living out the vows deepen my availability for mission and community?
Saturday	Where did I sense God's delight in my efforts to live my vows?

SPC MARK: Christ at the Center of my Life

Week 3: Listening Heart

"I will listen to what God the Lord will say;
He promises peace to His people, His faithful servants." Psalm 85:8

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How do I notice God speaking through people or events?
Monday	When did I respond promptly to God's inspiration?
Tuesday	When did my use of gadgets pull my attention away from prayer, silence, or rest?
Wednesday	How did constant digital connectivity affect my interior silence and attentiveness to God?
Thursday	How can I listen with love rather than judgment?
Friday	What truth about God's character became clearer to me today?
Saturday	What blessings or graces did I receive today that I might have overlooked?

SPC MARK: Christ at the Center of my Life

Week 4: Fidelity to Personal and Communal Prayers

"They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers." Acts 2:42

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How important is the Eucharist to me? How do I prepare for it?
Monday	How did the Eucharist, today, deepen my personal relationship with Christ?
Tuesday	How have I prioritized personal and communal prayer in my life of consecration and mission?
Wednesday	Do I regularly seek spiritual direction, go to Confession, and intentionally follow the guidance to grow closer to God?
Thursday	How am I called to be more devoted to daily prayer and the Eucharist?
Friday	In what ways do my words and actions reflect my life of prayer?
Saturday	Do I allow the Eucharist and Scripture to guide my decisions, even when they call me to take a challenging path?

Generous and Warmhearted Service

Generous and warmhearted service flows from a heart open to love and compassion. It calls us to live in solidarity, ready both to give and to receive, building one another up in mutual support. In this spirit, we nurture fraternal communion through tolerance, forgiveness, reconciliation, and the healing grace of God's love.

Capitular Acts 2025, p.17

Cultivate solidarity and mutual support learning both to give and to receive. Nurture fraternal communion through tolerance, forgiveness, reconciliation, and healing.

Grace to beg

I beg for the grace to nurture fraternal communion, to serve others with warmth, and to create moments of joy that strengthen our community bonds.

(Fraternal Life, Commitment 3)

SPC Mark: Generous and Warmhearted Service

Week 1: Willingness to Serve

"For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Mark 10:45

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Who might be waiting for my kindness today?
Monday	Was my heart attentive to the needs of others before they voiced them? How willing was I to extend help even without being asked?
Tuesday	What keeps me from serving freely?
Wednesday	How was I called to serve someone I found difficult to love?
Thursday	What small act of service brought joy today?
Friday	How did I experience generosity given or received?
Saturday	What do I learn about Jesus through serving others?

SPC Mark: Generous and Warmhearted Service

Week 2: Compassion in Action

“But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was; and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion. He went to him and bandaged his wounds...” Luke 10:33–34

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How can I make someone feel cared for today?
Monday	What suffering calls for my attention?
Tuesday	When have I felt moved by another's pain?
Wednesday	How can I show mercy in my words and gestures?
Thursday	Who needs gentle understanding from me?
Friday	What did compassion cost me today?
Saturday	How have I encountered the compassionate Christ?

SPC Mark: Generous and Warmhearted Service

Week 3: Joyful Giving

"It is more blessed to give than to receive."
Acts 20:35

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How faithful is our community in making time for simple recreation that fosters joy and strengthen bonds?
Monday	Do my attitude and participation in community interactions help cultivate joy and strengthen sense of belonging?
Tuesday	Where did I find joy in giving even when it cost me something?
Wednesday	How did God invite me to be available and generous to someone today?
Thursday	When did I first feel resistance to serving, and how was God calling me to step beyond my comfort zone?
Friday	In what ways did God lead me to give without seeking recognition or return?
Saturday	What simple service can I do to brighten someone's day?

SPC Mark: Generous and Warmhearted Service

Week 4: Perseverance in Service

"Let us not grow weary in doing good, for in due time we shall reap, if we do not give up."

Galatians 6:9

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	What drains my zeal for service?
Monday	How is Christ calling me back to a joyful spirit of service?
Tuesday	Who, in my life, models faithful and generous service?
Wednesday	Does my attitude toward service change when there is no thanks or acknowledgement from others?
Thursday	How is God strengthening me to persevere faithfully in service?
Friday	What unseen fruits of my hidden service did God let me discover today?
Saturday	What lesson has God taught me through endurance?

Mortification and Asceticism

Mortification and asceticism invite us to a life of self-mastery and interior freedom. Through humble self-denial and disciplined living, we unite our hearts with the Cross of Christ, allowing His love to transform us. Thus, we cultivate fidelity to our vows, living each day in simplicity, prayer, and wholehearted dedication to God.

Capitular Acts 2025, p.12

Cultivate discipline in the way we live the vows in today's context, asking myself each day: "How can I faithfully live my vows?"

Grace to beg

I beg for the grace to intentionally live simply, exercising prudence in my choices and accountability in my decisions.

(Life of Consecration, Commitment 2)

SPC Mark: Mortification and Asceticism

Week 1: Discipline of the Heart

"Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it." Proverbs 4:23

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	What desire needs purifying in me?
Monday	How is God calling me to practice moderation in my life today?
Tuesday	What small sacrifice can I offer with love?
Wednesday	What are the signs of a lack of discipline in my life, and where might they be most apparent?"
Thursday	Which disciplines of prayer, service, or sacrifice is God inviting me to deepen so I may be freer to love?
Friday	In what moments today did God help me to resist selfish impulses?
Saturday	How is God guiding me to order my desires according to His will today?

SPC Mark: Mortification and Asceticism

Week 2: Simplicity of Living

"Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth... but store up treasures in heaven..."

Matthew 6:19–21

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	What possession or habit complicates my life?
Monday	How can I choose the simpler way today?
Tuesday	What joy arises from living lightly?
Wednesday	How intentional am I in keeping only what I truly need, avoiding excess, clutter, and unnecessary indulgences?
Thursday	What do I truly need to be content?
Friday	How can I share what I have with those in need?
Saturday	How willing am I to serve in simplicity, even in the least and in lowly tasks?

SPC Mark: Mortification and Asceticism

Week 3: Embracing the Cross

"If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me." Luke 9:23

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	What cross am I invited to carry this day?
Monday	How can I bear my cross with love rather than complaint?
Tuesday	What helps me remember Christ's passion?
Wednesday	How can I comfort others in their suffering?
Thursday	Where did I glimpse resurrection amid pain?
Friday	Am I allowing worldly pleasures or achievements to take precedence over my spiritual life?
Saturday	Where am I being called, today, to deny myself, take up my cross, and follow Christ?

SPC Mark: Mortification and Asceticism

Week 4: Inner Freedom

"It is for freedom that Christ has set us free."

Galatians 5:1

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	What inner bondage is holding me back from freely loving and serving God?
Monday	Do I regularly examine my belongings and let go of what I no longer need?
Tuesday	Where did God help me trust Him instead of giving in to fear today?
Wednesday	What is one habit God is nudging me to let go so I can follow Him more freely and grow in holiness?"
Thursday	What unnecessary weight can I lay down today before the Lord?
Friday	Where am I holding on too tightly, and how is God calling me to freedom?
Saturday	What spiritual disciplines am I called to practice to overcome my sinful tendencies

Tranquil Daring

Tranquil daring is a serene courage born of unwavering trust in God's providence. It inspires us to live the spirit of the Visitation—going forth with boldness and joy to the peripheries, stepping beyond our comfort zones, and remaining steadfast in faith amid life's challenges.

Capitular Acts 2025, p.23

Cultivate a spirituality of Visitation, going to the peripheries with audacity, leaving our comfort zones, and persevering in difficult situations.

Grace to beg

I beg for the grace of tranquil daring, that I may courageously respond in mission, remaining faithful to our Rule of Life and relevant to the call of the times.

(Formation, Commitment 7)

SPC MARK: Tranquil Daring

Week 1: Steadfast Commitment

"But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." Joshua 24:15

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Where is God calling me to remain faithful despite challenges?
Monday	How did I respond to obstacles in my duties?
Tuesday	When did I remain steadfast in my commitments today?
Wednesday	How am I living my commitment to continual formation so that my life remains faithful to our Book of life?
Thursday	How have I experienced God's presence in trials?
Friday	In which moments today did I struggle to remain steadfast, and how is God inviting me to grow?
Saturday	For what act of perseverance am I grateful today?

SPC MARK: Tranquil Daring

Week 2: Responding to the Call of the Times

"Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God." – Romans 12:2*

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How open and discerning am I to the signs of the times in my life and mission today?
Monday	How can I share my thoughts courageously and responsibly?
Tuesday	What new action can I take today to strengthen my formation, mission, and life of consecration?
Wednesday	In what ways did I step out of my comfort zone for mission or community needs?
Thursday	How can I use technology and artificial intelligence (AI) to support my formation, mission, and life as a consecrated person?
Friday	In what situations have I misused and abused technology and AI?
Saturday	What acts of care for creation shall I start today and continue faithfully?

SPC MARK: Tranquil Daring

Week 3: Courageous Faith

"Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:9

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Where is God asking me to step out in faith this day?
Monday	How do I face fear with trust in God?
Tuesday	When have I felt courageous through God's strength?
Wednesday	How can I take calculated risks for the good of others?
Thursday	What limits do I need to surrender to God?
Friday	How has God led me beyond my comfort zone today?
Saturday	In what way did I experience God's guidance in daring actions?

SPC MARK: Tranquil Daring

Week 4: Making a Step Amidst Uncertainties

"For we walk by faith, not by sight." 2 Cor. 5:7

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Where is God asking me to take a step forward despite uncertainty?
Monday	Where is God inviting me to step back so others can step forward?
Tuesday	When have I let go of control and moved forward in faith today?
Wednesday	Am I willing to share my knowledge and mentor others for the continuity of the mission?
Thursday	Do I have the humility to remain open to receiving help and guidance?
Friday	How has God guided me through uncertainty today?
Saturday	Am I doing my part to help ensure the continuity and future of our Congregation?

Docility to the Holy Spirit

Docility to the Spirit calls us to a humble openness that allows God to move freely in our lives. Following Mary at the Annunciation and the apostles in the Upper Room, we seek to listen deeply, surrender our own plans, and let the Spirit guide us in faith, courage, and love.

Capitular Acts 2025, p. 12

Live Christ's way: chaste, poor, and obedient; bearers of God's love, fully trusting in His Providence, and docile to the Father's Will through the promptings of the Holy Spirit.

Grace to beg

I beg for the grace to be discerning,
docile to the Spirit, committing to synodality,
transparency, and accountability.

(Synodality, Commitment 6)

SPC Mark: Docility to the Spirit

Week 1: Openness to Guidance

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make straight your paths.” Proverbs 3:5–6

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Where is God calling me to listen – even when it is challenging?
Monday	How open am I to the guidance of my Superiors and/or spiritual guides?
Tuesday	In what situation today am I called to be discerning?
Wednesday	What attitudes of mine keep me from listening to God and my Sisters?
Thursday	Am I truly committed to the Congregation by following its guidance and horarium?
Friday	Where did I sense the Spirit guiding my choices today?
Saturday	For what promptings of the Spirit am I grateful this day?

SPC Mark: Docility to the Spirit

Week 2: Synodality – Journeying and Discerning Together

“For where two or three are gathered in My name, there am I in the midst of them.” 1 Peter 5:6

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How am I being invited to journey alongside others instead of doing it alone?
Monday	How can I surrender personal preferences today?
Tuesday	What attitudes hinder my participation in shared mission and dialogue?
Wednesday	How can I grow in humility through obedience?
Thursday	How can I promote and encourage the practice of communal discernment in my community?
Friday	Was I impatient today, and how did it affect my response to others?
Saturday	What attitude, processes, and habits must I begin to be more synodal?

SPC Mark: Docility to the Spirit

Week 3: Transparency—Seeking Truth & Counsel

“Whoever lives the truth comes to the light.”
John 3:21

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	What decision requires prayerful guidance this day?
Monday	Who can I turn to for wise counsel?
Tuesday	Where is God inviting me to greater honesty and openness?
Wednesday	How transparent am I in my communications and relationships?
Thursday	What fears prevent me from speaking and living in truth?
Friday	When have I been tempted to hide, justify, or withhold the truth?
Saturday	How did honesty free me or others today?

SPC Mark: Docility to the Spirit

Week 4: Accountability – Responsibility in Mission

“Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found trustworthy.” 1 Corinthians 4:2

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How do I live my responsibilities as a steward of God’s mission?
Monday	Do I responsibly use my time and resources today?
Tuesday	How open am I to correction and evaluation?
Wednesday	Do the ways I carry out my mission have a positive or negative effect on my community and co-workers?
Thursday	How do I guard myself against misusing the authority entrusted to me?
Friday	How do I respond when I fall short of my responsibilities?
Saturday	Am I mindful of how my decisions affect my community and mission?

Self-Effacement

Self-effacement is a heart that loves quietly, serves humbly, and gives without seeking recognition. It is expressed not through grand gestures, but through silent, transformative service. Fr. Chauvet lived this way, prayerful and tranquil in daring, allowing Christ to shine through his hidden acts of love and service.

Capitular Acts 2025, p. 12

Continue to live the charism of Father Louis Chauvet by bringing God's love to the poor and marginalized, and to all without distinction.

Grace to beg

I beg for the grace to live humbly, ensuring that every Sister's voice is valued and no one feels unseen or unheard.

(Interculturality and Co-responsibility, Commitments 4 and 5, respectively)

SPC Mark: Self-Effacement

Week 1: Serving Without Recognition

“But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your giving may be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.”

Matthew 6:3–4

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Where did God give me the grace to serve without being noticed today?
Monday	How is God teaching me to perform my duties without seeking recognition?
Tuesday	What need for human recognition must I let go of to serve God more freely?
Wednesday	How did I enter into stillness to enable me to hear God’s Call?
Thursday	When did I acknowledge others’ contributions?
Friday	What moment today led me to silence my ego and heed God’s voice?
Saturday	What has God taught me this day about serving without seeking acknowledgment?

SPC Mark: Self-Effacement

Week 2: Listening and Respecting Others

"Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others."
Philippians 2:3–4

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Who needs my careful listening today?
Monday	In what ways did God invite me to respond with empathy rather than judgment?
Tuesday	What attitude keeps me focused on myself instead of on others?
Wednesday	How did God teach me to listen with compassion today?
Thursday	Which moments today showed me how pride hindered my respect for another?
Friday	Where did God show me the beauty of another person's story?
Saturday	Which encounters of listening am I grateful for?

SPC Mark: Self-Effacement

Week 3: Humble Acceptance

"But He gives more grace. Therefore it says, 'God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.'"James 4:6

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How did I receive correction, and in what way was God speaking to me through it?
Monday	When do I feel defensive, and what might God be revealing through that reaction?
Tuesday	How is God inviting me to learn and grow from the feedback I received?
Wednesday	What helps me see feedback as God's way of shaping me?
Thursday	How is God using the people in my life to help me grow in humility?
Friday	How has feedback improved my service?
Saturday	For what lesson in humility am I thankful?

SPC Mark: Self-Effacement

Week 4: Encouraging Others to Shine

"Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing."

1 Thessalonians 5:11

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Who is God asking me to affirm or assist today?
Monday	How can I lift up or highlight someone else's contribution today?
Tuesday	When did God give me the grace to step back so another could lead?
Wednesday	In what way is God asking me to be genuinely happy for someone else's achievement right now?
Thursday	What prideful thoughts must I release?
Friday	Where has God been shaping my attitude toward humility lately?
Saturday	Where did I experience joy in lifting someone up this day?

Simplicity

Simplicity is a grace-filled way of living with a free and undivided heart, seeking God above all. It is not merely material poverty, but a life of truth, humility, and joyful surrender, letting go of what is unnecessary to remain fully open and devoted to God.

Capitular Acts 2025, page 12

Bear witness by living in the world without being “of the world,” thus going against the tide of consumerism, materialism, and secularism, that can weaken consecrated life.

Grace to beg

I beg for the grace to embrace simplicity of life, letting my choices reflect Gospel values and concern for those in need.

(Life of Consecration and Mission of Proximity, Commitments 2 and 9, respectively)

SPC Mark: Simplicity

Week 1: Living with Contentment

"Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for He has said, 'I will never leave you nor forsake you.'"

Hebrews 13:5

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	What blessings has God given me that I may have overlooked today?
Monday	How is God inviting me to simplify my desires, routines, and priorities?
Tuesday	When did I experience contentment in poverty?
Wednesday	Where do I notice myself leaning on material things instead of trusting in God?
Thursday	What helps me live gratefully and simply?
Friday	How have I shared God's blessings with others today?
Saturday	What simple grace am I most grateful for?

SPC Mark: Simplicity

Week 2: Sincerity of Heart

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God."* Matthew 5:8

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How is God inviting me to purity of intentions?
Monday	What prevents me from being fully sincere and authentic in God's presence?
Tuesday	Was I transparent, or did I soften or hide the truth?
Wednesday	Where is God calling me to deeper authenticity and transparency?
Thursday	Did my choices today move me toward God or away from Him? Why?
Friday	Where did I fall short of purity today, and what is God's specific invitation for me to turn back to Him?
Saturday	What invitations to integrity did I recognize but struggle with?

SPC Mark: Simplicity

Week 3: Detachment

"And he said to them, 'Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions.'" Luke 12:15

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	What possessions am I overly attached to?
Monday	In what ways can I use what I have in a more responsible way?
Tuesday	When did I share something freely today?
Wednesday	Do our ministry's internal and external structures reflect the simplicity, justice, mercy, and nearness of Christ?
Thursday	What is the Lord showing me and asking me to do regarding mentoring and empowering others?
Friday	Where am I being invited to let go of control in my ministry so others may take responsibility and flourish?
Saturday	How has letting go affected me today—was I peaceful or resistant?

SPC Mark: Simplicity

Week 4: Joy in Simplicity

"I perceived that there is nothing better for them than to be joyful and to do good as long as they live..." Ecclesiastes 3:12

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	What simple moment brought me joy today?
Monday	How do I express joy in my daily mission?
Tuesday	At what moments today did I truly laugh or smile freely?
Wednesday	How can I help others find joy in simplicity?
Thursday	Where do I find myself straying from the simplicity my vow of poverty demands?
Friday	How do I find God in the simple, ordinary rhythms of my day?
Saturday	In what area is the Lord inviting me to grow in simplicity?

Hospitality

Hospitality is a grace of the heart—an openness that reflects God's unconditional welcome. It is expressed through compassion, humility, and attentive presence to others, following the example of Jesus who embraced all, especially the marginalized. It inspires the building of communities marked by respect, dialogue, and mutual support among missionaries and host Sisters

Capitular Acts 2025, page 19

*Build communities where spaces of welcome and dialogue are created – intercultural and synodal –
where missionaries and host Sisters grow together in respect and collaboration.*

Grace to beg

I beg for the grace to make a conscious effort in creating spaces where every person feels welcomed and respected. (Interculturality, Commitment 4)

SPC MARK: Hospitality

Week 1: Welcoming Presence

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me." Matthew 25:35

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Do people feel like they can easily come to me to talk or ask for help?
Monday	How can I bring God's comfort to someone struggling today?
Tuesday	Where did I experience God welcoming me through others?
Wednesday	How can I express God's love in my hospitality?
Thursday	Whom is God asking me to approach with kindness today?
vow	What is God asking me to let go of so I can be a welcoming presence?
Saturday	Whom has God sent to remind me that each person is a precious gift?

SPC MARK: Hospitality

Week 2: Compassionate Listening

"Know this, my beloved brothers and sisters: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger." James 1:19

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How has God used someone's story to touch or teach me?
Monday	How did God help me resist reacting and instead listen with empathy?
Tuesday	Where did I notice God inviting me to listen more patiently?
Wednesday	What helps me listen without judgment?
Thursday	How can I seek God's wisdom and discernment before speaking into someone's life?
Friday	What keeps me from being fully present to another in a conversation? How can I overcome these barriers?
Saturday	For which listening encounters am I grateful to God?

SPC MARK: Hospitality

Week 3: Creating a Welcoming Space

"Show hospitality to one another without grumbling." 1 Peter 4:9

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How does my environment make people feel, welcomed or unwelcome?
Monday	How can I reflect God's hospitality in our community today?
Tuesday	Did I leave the space I used prepared and welcoming for the next who would enter?
Wednesday	Where might my presence hinder others from experiencing God?
Thursday	What small gesture can I do to brighten someone's day?
Friday	Am I mindful of how my expressions—facial and verbal— affect others?
Saturday	Does my presence invite others to experience God's love, or does it create distance?

SPC MARK: Hospitality

Week 4: Welcoming the Stranger

"Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by this some have entertained angels without knowing it." Hebrews 13:2

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Whom have I overlooked or avoided, and how can I see them as God sees them?
Monday	How can I show kindness to someone I don't know well?
Tuesday	What fear hinders me from openness to others?
Wednesday	How can I show respect or acknowledgement to people who are different from me? e.g. belief, background, etc.
Thursday	When have I recognized Christ in a stranger?
Friday	In what ways have I discriminated in showing hospitality?
Saturday	What encounter this day revealed God's presence to me?

Responsible Stewardship

Responsible stewardship is a faithful care of the gifts entrusted to us—time, talents, and resources—offered for the service of God and others. It calls us to act with integrity, accountability, and generosity, ensuring that all we have is used wisely to build up the community and advance God's mission in the world.

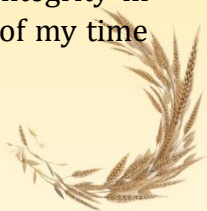

Capitular Acts 2025, p. 24

Respond with urgency to the call of Pope Francis in Laudato Si', committing to integral ecology in daily life and mission, actualizing concrete initiatives to promote "Justice, Peace and Integrity of Creation" (JPIC) as a form of prophetic witness.

Grace to beg

I beg for the grace of fidelity and integrity in fulfilling my mission and in the use of my time and resources entrusted to me.

(Co-responsibility and Missionary Zeal, Commitments 5 and 8, respectively)

SPC MARK: Responsible Stewardship

Week 1: Care for Resources

"Whoever is faithful in little is also faithful in much, and whoever is dishonest in little is also dishonest in much." Luke 16:10

Sunday	How have I used my time today to honor God?
Monday	Which talent is God calling me to develop or share?
Tuesday	When did I waste my time or misuse a resource?
Wednesday	How can I be more grateful for what I have?
Thursday	What small act of care for others can I do today?
Friday	How do I witness responsible use of resources entrusted to me?
Saturday	Where am I neglecting self-care, and how is God guiding me to balance it?

SPC MARK: Responsible Stewardship

Week 2: Care for Creation

“The earth is the Lord’s and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it.” Psalm 24:1

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Where have I made small sacrifices to show care for the earth?
Monday	What habits can I change to reduce wastage?
Tuesday	When have I paused to notice and give thanks for the beauty in creation?
Wednesday	How can I be more mindful in consuming resources as God’s steward?
Thursday	What action can I personally take to care for our environment?
Friday	How can I inspire or help others to care for God’s creation?
Saturday	Which encounter with nature this day helped me feel God’s presence?

SPC MARK: Responsible Stewardship

Week 3: Accountability in Mission

"Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will demand the more." Luke 12:48

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Have I consistently observed the community horarium and actively engage in community and apostolic life?
Monday	How have I been unfaithful in my mission, and what is God showing me?
Tuesday	How conscientiously have I fulfilled my mission today?
Wednesday	How do I take responsibility for my mistakes?
Thursday	How can I align my objectives with God's call to justice in the face of human trafficking, political dishonesty, and the destruction of nature?
Friday	Where have I failed to be accountable, and what steps can I take to grow in faithfulness?"
Saturday	How faithful am I in asking permission from my Superiors and providing them with proper accounts of my actions?

SPC MARK: Responsible Stewardship

Week 4: Generosity in Sharing Resources

"Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver." 2 Cor. 9:6

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How can I share my gifts to serve God and others?
Monday	Was I joyful in giving myself today?
Tuesday	Who in my community or ministry can I bless with my time, skill, or presence today?
Wednesday	What helps me give freely and cheerfully?
Thursday	Do I see giving as participation in God's work?
Friday	In what ways have people been good to me?
Saturday	Did I withhold help when I had the ability to give it?

Zeal for Mission and Availability

Zeal for mission and availability is an openness of heart that says “yes” to God’s call, even when it is inconvenient or uncertain. It calls us to exercise creative fidelity, remaining true to our mission while responding resourcefully and faithfully to the challenges of today’s world.

Capitular Acts 2025, p. 23

Remain faithful to our mission while responding creatively to today’s evolving political, cultural, environmental, religious, and social challenges

Grace to beg

I beg for the grace to witness prophetically, standing for life, justice, peace, and the integrity of creation.

(Missionary Zeal and Formation, Commitments 8 and 10, respectively)

SPC MARK: Zeal for Mission and Availability

Week 1: Readiness to Serve

"Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' And I said, 'Here am I; send me!'" Isaiah 6:8

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	What call to service have I received today?
Monday	How did I address the needs of those around me?
Tuesday	Was I willing to assist my Sisters or those I serve without hesitation?
Wednesday	What hinders me from readiness in mission?
Thursday	Am I serving only within my comfort zone and resisting God's call to change?
Friday	How am I responding to worldwide issues like life threats, human trafficking, injustice, corruption, abuse of power, disinformation, and/or ecological destruction?
Saturday	Do I confront the challenges of my mission or avoid them?

SPC MARK: Zeal for Mission and Availability

Week 2: Apostolic Courage

"Proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching." 2 Tim. 4:2

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Where is God inviting me to share my faith more boldly?
Monday	How do I proclaim Christ in ordinary situations?
Tuesday	What fear is holding me back from giving witness?
Wednesday	How can I strengthen my faith?
Thursday	In what ways am I doing my part to promote vocations for our Congregation?
Friday	How do I inspire others toward God and His mission?
Saturday	When did I speak of God with courage today?

SPC MARK: Zeal for Mission and Availability

Week 3: Missionary Joy

"Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice." Philippians 4:4

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How have I experienced God's joy in my mission today?
Monday	When did I radiate joy in service today?
Tuesday	What weighs down my missionary spirit?
Wednesday	How can I bring joy to those I serve?
Thursday	How does gratitude renew my zeal?
Friday	Where have I witnessed joy that awakened faith in others?
Saturday	Where have I allowed discouragement or fatigue to dull my commitment/my faith?

SPC MARK: Zeal for Mission and Availability

Week 4: Availability to the Spirit

“For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.” Romans 8:14

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How do I sense the Spirit's promptings today?
Monday	What can help me to embrace and say yes to the Spirit's inspiration?
Tuesday	When did I resist the Spirit's movement this day?
Wednesday	How can I stay flexible and trusting?
Thursday	What invitation from God is stirring in my heart?
Friday	How have I followed the Spirit's lead today?
Saturday	For what inner movement of grace am I grateful?

All to All

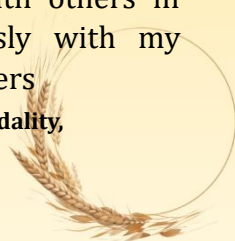

All to all is the wholehearted embrace of everyone and everything, allowing our hearts to be shaped by Christ's compassion. Without choosing or excluding, we serve all, following St. Paul who gave himself fully for the Gospel, becoming a gentle, self-giving, and radiant presence of Christ to every person we encounter.

Capitular Acts 2025, p. 23

Bring hope and support to young people needing guidance, abandoned persons, the spiritually poor, children in difficulty, migrants, refugees, the elderly, and those who suffer exclusion or abuse.

Grace to beg

I beg for the grace to walk with others in mission, collaborating generously with my Sisters, the Church and our partners in service. (Co-Responsibility and Synodality, Commitments 5 and 6, respectively)

SPC MARK: All to All

Week 1: Empathy and Adaptability

"To the weak I became weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that by all means I might save some."

1 Corinthians 9:22

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	Who is God calling me to walk alongside and accompany?
Monday	How did I notice and respond to the unspoken needs of my Sisters or those I serve?
Tuesday	In what ways am I being invited to adapt for the good of those around me
Wednesday	What helps me to understand people who are different from me?
Thursday	Which of my attitudes prevent me from being empathetic and adaptable?
Friday	What personal healing do I need to be able to empathize with others?
Saturday	How have my own struggles helped me serve others?

SPC MARK: All to All

Week 2: Respect for Diversity

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is no male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” Galatians 3:28

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How can I be genuinely open and engaging with people who think or live differently?
Monday	What diversity do I encounter in my community?
Tuesday	How can I grow in truly appreciating the gifts of others?
Wednesday	When did I let go of prejudice or bias today?
Thursday	What helps me foster inclusion and harmony?
Friday	How have I celebrated unity in diversity?
Saturday	What richness do the differences among people make me a better person and for which I am thankful?

SPC MARK: All to All

Week 3: Adaptation in Mission

“Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.” Matthew 10:16

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How flexible am I in responding to others' needs?
Monday	How did changing my plan help me better serve others?
Tuesday	How can I make my approach more compassionate?
Wednesday	What mindsets/practices help me see through another person's lens?
Thursday	How can I imitate Paul's "all to all" spirit today?
Friday	In what ways is the Spirit calling our province to grow in communal discernment and synodal decision-making?
Saturday	What mission experience am I thankful for this day?

SPC MARK: All to All

Week 4: Unity in Mission

“That they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me.” John 17:21

Day	Daily Prompt
Sunday	How can I foster unity in my community?
Monday	What disrupts collaboration in our mission?
Tuesday	What conditions make me most eager to collaborate with others?
Wednesday	How can I encourage teamwork with humility?
Thursday	What helps me value others' roles?
Friday	How has unity strengthened our witness?
Saturday	For what shared mission am I grateful?

Charity in Community

Charity in Community calls us to see the community as our primary place of mission—a living school of love, growth, and communion. Here, prayer, dialogue, mission, and fraternity come together, and simple, welcoming relationships are nurtured. Through mutual care, patience, and forgiveness, joy, simplicity, and God's love are lived and shared in daily life.

Capitular Acts 2025, p. 17

Recognize that the community is our primary place of mission, a school of love and communion where:

- prayer, dialogue, mission, and fraternity harmonize.
- simple and welcoming relationships are cultivated.
- joy, simplicity, and love of God are manifested.
- differences and diversity become opportunities for growth and witness, forming a mosaic of graces.

Grace to beg

I beg for the grace to live charity in by fostering unity, shared responsibility, and mutual care among Sisters.

(Fraternal Life, Commitment 3)

SPC MARK: Charity in Community

Week 1: Forgiveness and Reconciliation
