EXAMEN GUIDE

“I have no greater blessing than to hear my daughters walk in the truth.”

3 John 1:4

The background of the lower half of the page is a soft, painterly illustration of a sunset or sunrise. A bright sun with long, thin rays is positioned in the center of the horizon. A winding path leads from the bottom center towards the sun. Along this path, there are several sets of brown footprints, starting from the bottom and receding towards the horizon. The overall color palette is warm, with shades of yellow, orange, and brown.
